

Vincent Monziols to head Latécoère's Interconnection Systems division

Toulouse, May 10, 2022 - Latécoère, a "Tier 1" international partner of the world's major aircraft manufacturers, announces the upcoming arrival of Vincent Monziols as the new General Manager of the Interconnection Systems branch. He will succeed Thierry Mootz, who became Chief Executive Officer of Latécoère on August 2, 2021.

"We are very pleased to welcome Vincent Monziols as head of the Interconnection Systems Division and member of the Executive Committee. With nearly 15 years' experience within the industry and in various management positions, he will be able to bring his know-how and sector knowledge to the division and support it in all the challenges ahead. He will support Latécoère in its external growth strategy, having made strategic acquisitions for Saint-Gobain throughout his career," said Thierry Mootz, CEO of Latécoère.

An engineer by training, he graduated from the Ecole Polytechnique (1996) with a degree in mathematics and molecular biology, and also from AgroParisTech. He then joined Sciences Po Paris for a postgraduate degree in finance. He began his career at Ventech and then Protéus before joining Saint-Gobain in 2005. He became CEO of Engineered Components in 2016, €430M in sales, 25 manufacturing sites with 3,000 employees worldwide, 4 Business Units manufacturing high value-added components for various industries including automotive, aerospace, life sciences, energy.
